Whaley Was Convicted of Fraud.

WELL KNOWN HERE DURING MONARCHY

Man Who Was Behind Lottery and Opium Deals Now In Manila.

"Handsome" Will Whaley, known in Honolulu in the palmy and last days of the monarchy as the "Opfum King," is in trouble in Manila. He has been sent 2:08 to jail for the alleged defrauding of a 2:55 Mrs. Levy, the widow of his former part-4:32 ner in theatrical enterprises. Since 4:52 Whaley's departure from Honolulu sev-8:35 2:05 5:26 eral years ago, he has been interested in a number of ventures in Yokohama, Hongkong and Manila, and, aithough he has not been living in the expensive manner to which he was accustomed when he came here in his yacht, the "Halcyon," and plied his trade of smuggling opium into the Islands, yet he is still trying to keep his pockets well lin-

Whaley has had for another partner a man named Johnson, and on March 6 both were found guilty of defrauding the widow of Samuel J. Levy, who was concerned with them in the Alhambra theater vaudeville show. They are said to be the gainer by 15,000 pesos. Judge Odlin of Manila decided against the former leader of the opium and lottery ring, The decision was merely rendered as explanatory of the court's refusal to grant Whaley's and Johnson's application for the dismissal of the order for their arrest. They had filed affidavits with the court denying the charges of fraud that Mattle Levy had brought against them, and on the strength of which the order for their arrest had been issued. In the hearing that followed they failed to substantiate their affidavits and it was proven to the court's satisfaction that they were guilty of the charges.

The Manila Times says of the case: The question of their punishment will be decided at the close of the regular trial. It is possible that during this session they may introduce new testimony that may turn the final decision in their favor; but at the present time their chances are pretty slim for a verdict otherwise than guilty. It is a prevalent opinion among the lawyers that they will be forced to reimburse the estate of Levy for the sum they secured under false pretenses and in case they fall to do this, Bilidid awaits them unless Mattle Levy forgives the debt or the Civil Commission enacts a law counteracting the one providing imprisonment for perions who fail to pay fraudulently acquired debts. It was only recently that Archibald Stewart, a young dealer in photographic supplies, was sent to Bili-bid for an indefinite term, varying between one year and a life-time, because he could not pay a debt of five hundred dollars which he had acquired under fraudulent pretenses.

LIKE OTHER CASES. At one time Whaley and Johnson stood a chance of being released from arrest on the grounds that the law under which they were arrested, was not retroactive that is, it did not apply to fraudulent acts committed prior to its enactment. This also was the contention of Arthur W. Prautch, accused of fraud by his former partner, Alfred Bereis, and arrested on complaint of the latter; but the Supreme Court definitely decided that arrest in his case was justifiable. This decision was a death-blow to Whaley's and Johnson's hopes for release and also to the case of Archibald Stewart and all others who had been arrested under the law. Judge Odlin is also of the opinion that the law authorizing arrest for fraudulently acquired debts is retroactive except where it conflicts with any vested property right under existing law.

SHANNON LASS' GRAND NATIONAL

LIVERPOOL, March 21.-Sportsmen turned out in force today, the second day of the last spring meeting, to see the Grand National Steeplechase run, though the interest of the general public in the event waned with the scratching of King Edward's entry, Ambush II and the knowledge that His Majesty, consequently, would not attend the meeting.

The Sexton Park plate was won by Wolfe's Hall, (Martin) Rushlight, (Maher) was second, and Little Widow was third. This opened the way for the Grand National Steeplechase of 2,525 sovereigns, a handicap for five year olds and upwards; distance about four miles and 856 yards. This race was won by Shannon Lass. Matthew was second and Manifesto was third. Twenty-one horses

None of the favorites secured a place. The three placed horses started, respectively, at 20 to 1 against, 50 to 1 against, and 100 to 6 against.

Drumero, the favorite, never in front. A horse with a very similar name, Drumee, led to the Beeches, where Barsac drew to the front, but gave way over the water, to Helium. Then Matthew assumed the lead, but was passed at the last fence by Shannon Lass, who won by three lengths. The same dis-tance separated the second and third
